The death of Mrs. Ophelia F. Yar-brough, wife of Policeman Channing H. arbrough, which occurred at her resi-ence, No. 227 south Belvidere street, esterday evening, came as a great chock to the many friends and relatives of that estimable lady. She was a faithful wife, a devoted mother, and a generous, whole-hearted neighbor. Mrs. Yarbrough was a Miss Williams. A fond husband and four children mourn her sad departure. The funeral will take sad departure. The funeral will tak place from the Grace-Street Baptis tabernacle at 5:39 o'clock this afternoon. ## Under the Wagon's & Wheels.

A runaway, which came near resulting fatally, occurred on Broad street Friday evening. A horse attached to a delivery wagon of P. Beauchim & Co. became frightened and ran away, throwing the driver out under the wheels of the vehicle. The young man was not hurt severely, however, but the scared animal was not stopped until Chestnut Hill had been reached and the wagon considerably damaged.
